

What if it rained
apple juice?

What if you had to go to school
until you were 21?

What if Abraham
Lincoln had not been shot?

What if your best friend told
you a lie?

What if your hiccups would not go away?

What if you
woke up and your skin
was purple?

What if your cat
started barking?

What if it
never stopped
snowing?

What if everyone
forgot about your birthday?

What if you
forgot how to read?
